

Company Name	Position Title 1	Full Time or Part Time	Position Summary
TriStar Greenview Regional Hospital	Patient Care Technician	Full-Time	The Patient Care Technician (PCT) delivers high quality, patient-centered care by performing a variety of delegated basic patient care services related to common nursing functions and activities of daily living. Under the supervision of the registered nurse (RN), the PCT assists the nursing staff in providing patient care in accordance with the PCT's skills/training and the needs of the Department, and consistently assists the patient care team with maintaining a clean, well-organized, and safe patient care environment. The PCT complies with all hospital policies/procedures and observes the State Board of Nursing rules for unlicensed personnel. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Participates in the implementation of nursing care plans by performing direct and indirect patient care under the supervision of the licensed nurse. - Obtains and records initial and ongoing patient information throughout the cycle of care, including admissions data, vital signs, height and weight, blood pressure, oxygen saturation, blood glucose levels, intake and output, and calorie counts.

			<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Documents observations, interactions, patient responses to performed activities, and any physical or behavioral changes at time of occurrence. Reports observations of individual patients to the RN/Team Leader.- Assists with mobility by regular turning and positioning, dangling, and ambulating patients. Assists with use of walkers, crutches, canes, and wheelchairs. Transfers patients to and from other units, departments, or entities. Assists with discharges. Demonstrates proper body mechanics.- Provides or assists with non-medicated support care, including non-sterile dressing changes, skin protection, application of heat or ice, and venous compression devices.- Obtains or assists in the collection of specimens for diagnostic or waived tests. Ensures accuracy of all labels and timely transfer of specimen.- Retrieves supplies from pharmacy, storage room, or tube systems and delivers as permitted by regulation and hospital policy.- Assists with patient preparation for surgery or other procedure.
--	--	--	--

			<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Orients patients/families/caregivers to room and hospital routine.- Assists patients with activities of daily living to include eating and drinking, bathing, shaving, oral care, grooming, and elimination. Changes bed linens as needed.- Performs hourly rounding and responds promptly to call lights and patient requests. Strives to anticipate patient needs and resolve them proactively.- Follows patient and employee safety/security policies and protocols, including hand hygiene, use of universal precautions, use of personal protective equipment, and adherence to isolation procedures.- Prepares and maintains clean, hazard-free patient rooms. Empties trash and removes soiled linens.- Assists with post-mortem care.- Assists in the setup, removal, and cleaning of equipment. Identifies malfunctioning equipment and initiates repairs.- Performs clerical work as needed, including assembling and maintain charts, filing, answering and transferring phones, and relaying messages.
--	--	--	---

	Transporter	Full-Time	Job Summary The patient transporter assists the smooth running of the Medical Center by efficiently responding to requests for patient movement from one department to another. The transporter participates in direct patient care by communicating with the patient and family the need for the transport, moving the patient to the required mode of travel and appropriately transitioning care equipment (IV poles, Oxygen lines, cardiac monitoring) from stationary to mobile for the move. III. General Essential Functions: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Appropriately identifies the patient using two patient identifiers2. Transports patients to/from department/units.3. Discharges patients to appropriate parking facilities4. Transfers patients to and from bed, stretcher, or wheelchair with or without assistance from clinical staff based upon patient needs
--	-------------	-----------	---

			<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 5. Responsible for department upkeep and cleanliness of stretchers, wheelchairs, oxygen cylinders, and ancillary equipment. 6. Appropriately uses the hospitals system to track and confirm patient movements and employee productivity 7. Retrieves and stores transport equipment. 8. Presents a pleasant, professional and tidy image to all customers of our facility 9. Attends modality and department meetings regularly. 10. Maintains all current certifications required for position. 11. Promotes customer service initiative by adhering to the Triple C values 12. Compliance with quarterly targeted metrics (i.e. Kronos, HealthStream, PACS, etc) 13. Any other duties that may be assigned.

	Food & Nutrition Patient Services Representative	Full-Time	The TriStar Food & Nutrition Patient Service Representative will be an experienced and competent professional who is responsible for obtaining food preferences, preparing, and distributing quality food and supplies to patients daily. This role will exemplify excellent customer service to all patients and employees. GENERAL ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Demonstrates the ability to perform specific competencies as listed on the Competency Checklist. Meets mutually agreed upon performance goals/objectives established annually as listed on the Performance Management Plan.2. Integrates ethics in all areas of practice. Adheres to confidentiality and patient's rights policies.3. Supports the facilities' mission and values.4. Performs other duties as assigned.
--	--	-----------	--